Parents and riders are strongly encouraged to assist with pole pick up throughout the classes, adjusting courses between classes and packing up at the end of the day. At Barastoc, horses come first.

Not everyone gets it. Not everyone knows the magic of a horse, nuzzling your palm on a cold, dewy morning. Or the reasons why weekends, early mornings or the middle of the night are the times when horses come first.

But horse people get it. Having a horse isn't just a lifestyle. It's a whole life. To create an environment where horses don't just feel at home, they thrive. To find the perfect mix of feed that makes them shine – inside and out. Horse people know that it is about more than just care, or even love. It's a passion. And horses always come first.

We are horse people too. Supporting your passion is our passion too. That's why we don't just make feed. We support young riders, local communities and Aussie farmers. We've been doing it for over 50 years and were not stopping anytime soon.
